

23COA123 Web Programming Coursework Marking Scheme

- Basic design and functionality (40%)
  - Implementation of filtering based on key criteria (date, party size, and catering grade) (6%)
  - Display correct venue names with their details (8%)
  - Display correct booking prices and detailed catering costs as well as the total expenses (8%)
  - Use of validation and error handling (5%)
  - User-friendly design by incorporating CSS, JavaScript, and contextually relevant images (13%)
- Advanced design, features, and implementation (45%)
  - Demonstration of creativity in design choices to make the user experience visually appealing (10%)
  - Utilising statistics, visuals, charts, and comparative elements for insightful presentation (15%)
  - Implementation of additional features and functionalities (beyond the basic requirements) that enhance the user's understanding and decision-making with meaningful insights (20%)
- Use of “AJAX requests or Fetch API” for enhanced interactivity and asynchronous webpage updates (10%)
- Use of JSON for data transfer (5%)